

The thrill of attending is the prize this year. No real festival has been organising but we thought that a social day on the rock after the viewing of the Move Smitten on the Friday 29 July would be nice.

The movie is courtesy of Climbing Anchors

Date: Friday 29 July

Time: from 7pm

Location: The Store at 3/1 Hi Tech Drive, Toormina. It will be a small space but nice and cosy.

Cost: $10 - all money received from cover charge will be put towards an anchor renewal fund for climbs around Coffs so we can replace some old rusting hardware!

Please note the director of the film has indicated it is MA rated (strong coarse language and sexual references) so it won't be appropriate for children.

We will provide snacks and soft drinks. BYO anything else.

We will have some lucky door prizes on the evening plus a competition for a bigger prize as well.

If you could let me know in advance if your able to make it that would be great so we can try and can gauge numbers in advance of the night.

It could be a good opportunity to get out for a climb as a group on the Saturday afterward if people are keen, maybe fort knox?
